

GUINEA PIG BODY SCORING CONDITION CHART

SCORE	GRAPHIC	DESCRIPTION/WHAT TO LOOK FOR
1		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hips, spine and ribs are visible and can be easily felt when petting and may be visible through the skin and coat. • Tummy is concave (arched). • Chest and rump are roughly same width; narrower at ribs (aerial view).
2		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hips, spine and ribs are not visible but can be easily felt when petting. • Tummy is slightly concave (gentle arch). • Chest is much narrower than rump (aerial view).
3		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hips, spine and ribs are not visible but can be felt when petting. • Tummy is neutral (flat, no arch). • Chest is narrower than rump (aerial view). • Feet are visible.
4		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hips, spine and ribs are not visible and difficult to feel when petting. • Tummy is convex (sagging). • Chest is just slightly narrower than rump; not much indentation at rib area (aerial view). • Feet are barely visible.
5		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hips, spine and ribs are not visible, and pressure must be applied to feel when petting. • Tummy is convex (sagging on floor). • Chest is about same width as rump; no indentation at rib area (aerial view). • Feet barely visible or not visible.